From HR professionals to seasoned consultants, get ready to amplify your impact with our science-backed, data-driven, and research-based tools, resources, and strategies! We believe that there is so much more to who you are as a person, and so much more that your teams and organisations can achieve collectively.

Join the next CBC programme to discover the greatest potential within you, your team, and your organisation. We are with you on this transformative journey!

WHY CHOOSE CBC?

In today's dynamic work environment, being well-equipped in behavioural styles is essential for effective communication, team dynamics, and talent management. Based on the well-known and widely used DISC Personality System, this specially designed 2-day intensive certification and training programme will provide you with a framework to understand human behaviour more profoundly.

While anyone can learn about the DISC model and its applications, obtaining a DISC certification brings your understanding and expertise to the next level. Attaining this DISC certification will also set you apart from others, as it reveals your hunger for professional development, willingness to invest, and passion to achieve greater success.

The CBC programme is a professional DISC Certification that provides you with in-depth training to ensure that you can effectively use the DISC model in your role, and it will give you a significant advantage to make an impact, while positioning you for greater career opportunities.

“...ESSENTIAL FOR EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION, TEAM DYNAMICS, AND TALENT MANAGEMENT.”

WHAT DOES THIS PROGRAMME COVER?

This certification programme offers a comprehensive introduction to the DISC theory, exploring DISC styles, blends, and enhancing interactions among different styles. You will be equipped in analysing graph, identifying special patterns, and foundational skills in applying DISC assessments. These tools are invaluable in coaching, counseling, human resource management, talent management, and professional consulting.

This certification is an investment in yourself, your workplace, and your personal relationships. Beyond that, you will join a global network of thousands of qualified professionals already making an impact in homes, workplaces, organisations, and communities through their enhanced capabilities.

With consistent ongoing research and data mining on quantitative and qualitative information collected from more than 50,000 people profiled over the years, you will gain access to real-life scenarios and strategies that are applicable across demographics and sectors.

This programme will be trained and led by our DISC experts who have trained and profiled thousands in the concept of behavioural assessment, of which many were empowered to venture into professional consulting as their own career. Upon completion of this training, you will receive certification from the Institute for Motivational Living as a Certified Behavioural Consultant.
